

THE ORANGEBURG TIMES

Orangeburg, S. C., June 12, 1873.

LARGEST CIRCULATION IN THE COUNTY.

To change Contract Advertisements, notice must be given before Monday noon.
Our friends wishing to have advertisements inserted in the TIMES, must hand them in by Tuesday morning, 10 o'clock.

ADVERTISEMENTS will be inserted at the rate of one dollar and a half per square for the first insertion, and one dollar per square for each subsequent insertion.
Liberal terms made with those who desire to advertise for three, six or twelve months.
Marriage notices and Obituaries not exceeding one square, inserted free.

Henceforth, all Legal Advertisements, of County Interest, whether notices or others, will be published for the benefit of our readers whether they are paid for or not.

SUBSCRIBERS
Will have their papers regularly mailed. Send us new names, build up our paper, and let every household in the County be a supporter of our enterprise.

ADVERTISERS
Will find it specially to their interest to give us their cards. A conspicuous notice will attend each advertisement. To build up the interests of our merchants is the aim of the "Times."

LATEST.
A $250,000 fire is raging at Toledo.
The remains of the late Hon. J. L. Orr arrived at New York on the 10th.
Captain Jack is to be tried by Court Martial. His fate is sealed.

Mr. L. W. Port, of Georgetown, was found on Friday last at that place, hanging from a fence. His body was mutilated by severe cuts and bruises. Life was extinct.

Comptroller Hoge still fights the case of Morton, Bliss & Co., against the State of South Carolina. There is a fraudulent debt outstanding, and the guilty parties to the scheme of robbing the State should be hanged out.

ONLY $7,000,000.
Murder will out; Let thieves quarrel, and honest men will get their dues. This is a poor crumb of comfort for South Carolina. She was saddled with a pack of adventurers, renegades and ignoramus, who used force to plunder a wasted and impoverished State. We were constantly reminded of being purblind to the nearest blessing of the nineteenth century; i. e. Progressive liberty. We tried to see our way out of the maze of corruption, and vandalism, but could not for truth's sake. The seal is broke, and the vial of infamy is being poured out. The Comptroller General of South Carolina admits that $7,191,700 of fraudulent bonds are in existence. We knew that there was gigantic stealing at Columbia, and we hope that the penitentiary was built for the perpetrators of the villainy.

AN IMPORTANT MOVE.
Col. A. R. Waring and Jas. R. Randall, Esq., on behalf of the Southern Life Association visited Orangeburg last week for the purpose of establishing a local board of trustees, to represent the largely growing interests of this successful Company. Although there is a stringency in monetary affairs, and almost every one was disposed to postpone the important matter of investing in Life Insurance (the best and easiest security for future contingencies) still these gentlemen added largely to the already popular list of assured, and sent forward many applications for insurance. On Tuesday it was resolved to establish the Local Board. At 10 o'clock a representation of the business men of Orangeburg and County met, and the meeting was called to order by the temporary appointment of Dr. W. F. Barton, as Chairman, and J. A. Hamilton Esq., as Secretary. Mr. Randall briefly stated the object of the meeting, viz: to build up the interest of a Southern Company, to check the drain of wealth pouring away from our section to the North, to retain that capital where it is gathered, and to put the responsible affairs of the Company in responsible hands in each locality. W. J. DeTreville offered a motion that a Committee of three be appointed to nominate officers for the local board. Messrs. DeTreville, J. L. Moyer and Geo. Boliver, retired to make nominations. Upon their return the following board was presented and duly elected:

PRESIDENT,
DR. W. F. BARTON.
SECRETARY,
JOHN A. HAMILTON.
EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE,
COL. PAUL S. FELDER,
CAPT. J. F. IZLAR,
GEO. BOLIVER.

The President and Secretary were added to the Executive Committee as members ex officio. Col. Waring and Mr. Randall, expressed a grateful sense of the attention and support received since their visit, and the meeting adjourned. We have a word to say and will close. Life Assurance is so acknowledged, as the great boon to man, that the question is simply "Can I afford to be without it?" You can insure a certain investment of $5000 for the same amount you would pay in bankable interest on a purchase of land. You are free from all taxation, no repairs, no anxiety about the investment; it goes on and from the day of your venture it begins to work for you, a return dividend of from ten to twenty per cent comes back, which lessens your next payment, or increases your policy. Disaster in business may prostrate, and death must inevitably ensue, there stands your legacy to a family, free from all incumbrances or drawbacks. To all who can; we honestly and conscientiously, say: Insure your lives now that you are in health. When sickness comes it will be too late. See advertisement of the Southern Life Association.

THE SOUTH CAROLINIAN.
The circular of Messrs. Thomas & Lamotte, Proprietors and Publishers of the Carolinian, which announces the suspension of that Journal is before us. We need hardly express our regret that so fearless, able and staunch an exponent of the views of South Carolinians, and so truthful a sentinel at the front where the enemies of Liberty and honesty invade, is obliged to succumb to an unavoidable fate. The "Carolinian" fought a good fight at the centre of so-called republican government, and had its leaders been base enough to accept a sop of bribery, it might have effected a seat on the fence, with other journals, that value principle to the extent only of its paying properties. There is a base huzza ringing along the lines of its foes, that another champion is laid low, but like the cause it espoused, it perished from an overwhelming force of opposition, not from any want of that appreciation which "holds on to the right though the heavens may fall." The rule of the present day is abnormal, and false; Like the fitful dream of the debauched "Christophoro Sly," its adherents will wake up to their true position ere long; a place in the mud and scum of obloquy, from which sprang the vilest of renegades and adventurers, who hold the rod of power.

CHIPPINGS.
—The Cheraw Democrat states, that diarrhea of a malignant type, has prevailed in Cheraw and vicinity for a fortnight, causing death in several cases.—The disease was epidemic here for some time past.
—The "Grangers" have elected A. M. Craig (Farmer's candidate) to the Judgeship of the Supreme Court of Illinois.—The West and South may control the balance of power, yet; through its farmers.
—The London Observer in referring to the toilet of the Marchioness of Bute, at the State Concert at Buckingham palace, places the milliner who prepared the outfit, upon an exalted pyramid, as a model designer of artistic merit. The comments upon the dress is worth a fortune to the lucky fashionmonger.
—The repeated strikes among the miners and other working classes of workmen in England, have already caused an aggregate loss for the fiscal year, to the workman and their families of many million of dollars.
—The travel from the East Indies, by way of the Suez Canal is made by steamers to London in 31 days. The last vessel arriving brought 136 passengers and a full cargo.

—The American department at the Vienna exhibition is a comparative failure. The Smoky Caesar was not there.

—Aiken is getting alarmed that it may lose the usual crowd of visitors, and calls a public meeting to devise means to retain them. Florida draws them away.

—The case of Morton, Bliss & Co., against the State of South Carolina, to enforce the payment of bogus bonds will be tried on the 10th. [So will the integrity of the Radical ermine. Ed.]

—Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Dozier living near Suffolk, Va., were murdered last Sunday by a negro named Jim Brown. The rest of the family had gone to church, the villain entered the house and demanded the keys from the ladies, they refused to give them up. He killed both with a billet of wood, and robbed the house of all the money he could find, namely, about five dollars. He has been captured, and has made a full confession.

—The Hillsboro Mo., Democrat gives an account of a family difficulty, in which one woman and four men were shot.

—Judge Robert Ould, formerly Confederate Commissioner of exchange of prisoners, is being pressed for the office of Governor of Virginia.

—A Mississippi quack is doing a large business in the sale of a nostrum, to straighten and lengthen curly hair. His patrons slyly ask, if "there is any chance of changing the complexion."

—Mr. McCarty, who killed young Mordecai in a duel at Richmond, is getting better.

—Mr. Tomlinson (the correspondent of the "News," whom Byas did not cowhide) was compelled to relinquish his post in connection with the "News and Courier," on account of failing health.

—The steamers Champion and South Carolinian from Charleston to New York carried away last week, 50,000 packages of new potatoes, snap beans, squashes, &c. These early vegetables command a fine price at the North.

—Henry Ward Beecher has made a most eloquent plea for the South, and extols her patriotism to the skies. His peroration is fragrant with "the rosemary of sweet remembrance, and the pansies for generous thoughts." [He is again upon a tangent, that will tickle our generous natures, but he will stay right only long enough to await the hatching of some new ism. Ed.]

—Burglaries are common all over the State. The jewelers seem to suffer most. A systematic gang of cracksmen are at work in Charleston, Columbia, and the up country.

—The report of a serious difficulty in Sumter, ending in the killing of two negro men by Maj. Geo. E. Pritchett, is entirely unfounded.

—The affairs of the Blue Ridge Road, will pass into the hands of an assignee.

—General D. H. Hill went on a skunk hunt, when he referred to the name of that hoary old villain (Brownlow.) The unmitigated and disgraced renegade replies in a most foul and scurrilous libel upon the General.

—Madame Nilsson Rouzand sang in five different languages before a French audience at a late concert.

—Beecher preached a sermon on Universal salvation lately, an ism it must be.

—The Walworth murderer is supposed to be insane.

—The "Chester Reporter" is responsible for the following: "Judge Moses is tired of the Radical party. He is reported to have said, that he would willingly give $10,000 to recover the social position he held in 1866." Some people can afford to be virtuous after they have prostituted all that is decent and noble to obtain gain; but the virtuous can never afford to receive such leprous subjects back to the arms of confidence.
